CUSTOMS CLEARANCE

Dear Client

Here are the procedures when arriving at the Johannesburg International Airport (O.R Thambo):

- 1) Clear passport Control where the flights arrive.
- 2) Proceed to baggage claim at the relevant carousel.
- 3) Proceed to the South African Police Firearms Officer where you declare the firearms and finish clearance procedures, and receive temporary inport permit for 90 or 180 days.

Please make sure all your firearms are declared on the temporary permit. No more than one firearm per calibre and not more than 200 rounds per calibre will be allowed into South Africa. 80 should be sufficient. Permits will only be issued for ammunition that is accompanied by a firearm of the same calibre.

Temporary permits will not be issued to anyone under the age of 21.

No temporary inport permits will be given for semi-automatic or automatic rifles.

There is no permits required, nor any charge by the South African Police Service for a bow or a blackpowder rifle.

Regards

Wim van der Merwe
